

Middle Grades Content Review Courses

fl-pda.org

The Middle Grades Content Review Courses, funded by the Bureau of Exceptional Student Education, are designed to help educators review their knowledge in core content areas outlined in the teacher competencies required in the following Florida subject area examinations: Middle Grades English, Math, Science and Social Studies. Course content is aligned with these competencies while promoting educator skill development to support implementation of the Florida Standards.

Target Audience

- ESE certified educators teaching basic education courses to students with disabilities in the middle grades who need to obtain certification in one or more of the four middle grades core content areas.
- Middle grades general educators who need to obtain certification in one or more of the four middle grades core content areas.

Course Features

- Self-paced
- Comprehensive
- User-friendly
- Free of charge to Florida educators

While the content covered in each review course is extensive, it does not replace the need for a comprehensive study of each subject including appropriate pedagogy. Completion of these courses does not guarantee a passing score on the selected subject area certification exam. Instructional support and in-service credit are not available with these courses. To enroll in one or more course: fl-pda.org

The BESE Portal to Professional Development Alternatives offers a variety of online course for Florida educators that will increase their ability to respond to the needs of students with disabilities.
Updated 6/30/21

